Hunter Hotel and Business Block Being Rapidly Erected This Week

Announcements made by the owners of Galion Gardens, located in the northeast section of the city, that lots would be placed on sale on Monday, October 19. According to the new subdivision plans made by Mr. G. C. Hunter and associates have been made through these columns and this week another announcement is made in a page advertisement of the properties offered and the restrictions placed thereon.

Galion Gardens will be St. Cloud's first exclusive subdivision and offers some of the best homesites to be had in this city.

Mr. Hunter, associated with Mr. Rodley is now building St. Cloud's new tourist hotel and business block on Tenth Avenue between Tenth and Eleventh Street, which takes in the Johnson block purchased by them which will be made two story to conform with the architects plans for the whole block to be improved by Mr. Hunter.

In Galion Gardens there are many lots that will be improved by Mr. Hunter and associates and all restrictions will be strictly adhered to in this development. In the center of this new development will be found a city park, and building restrictions around the park will be found to be greater than on the outlying lots.

Our Session: "A Friendly Church in a Friendly City"

A new banner was presented to the Sunday School last week through the courtesy of Uncle Ferguson and Mr. J. E. Diebold. The banner is to be awarded each month to the class which shows the best percentage of attendance based on the regular enrollment.

At the regular meeting of the Sunday School Board held on Tuesday evening Mrs. Gould was elected as teacher of the Young Women's Class. The class is to be congratulated in having this splendid opportunity.

A letter from Bishop Richardson received last week expressed his personal appreciation of the "exceeding generous" in which St. Cloud entertained the delegates to the Area World Service Council.

The choir will begin rehearsals for the Christmas Cantata next week.

C. C. ROFFE GOES TO MEET FAMILY

During the week end Secretary C. C. Roffe was absent from the city, having gone Jacksonville to meet Mrs. Roffe and their two daughters, who are moving to St. Cloud from Atlanta, Ga. They have leased the V. Clyde Edwards home on Ohio Avenue and Eleventh Street. St. Cloud is fortunate to secure Mr. Roffe as director of their band and as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Roffe who for the past five years has been soloist for the First Presbyterian church of Atlanta being the highest paid singer in the city, and has sung for all civic organizations in the City of Atlanta. It can be truthfully said Atlanta's loss is St. Cloud's great gain.

Miss Mabel Whitney niece of Mrs. Roffe who accompanied them will also make her home in St. Cloud.

LAYMEN TO CONDUCT METHODIST SERVICES

The Laymen's Council will have charge of the evening service at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday evening next, October 18th. The program will be entirely in the hands of the laymen of the city. Men who are well known in the business and professional life of the community will occupy the pulpit and the choir loft. A mens chorus will lead the singing. Special numbers will be contributed by the Male Voice Quartet (Messrs. Steen, Steen, Patton and Bennett). Mr. J. H. Ferguson will provide over the meeting. Mr. R. Gessford will direct the singing. Mr. J. B. Ellis as pianist.

VINSON BUYS HOME FROM WM. CRUM

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vinson have purchased the new stucco tile home just being completed by Will Crum, on Missouri Avenue, and will in the next few days move from the home of Mrs. M. W. Peckham on the lake front, as Mrs. Peckham will return to St. Cloud and occupy her home this winter. The material has been ordered and Mr. Crum will begin at once to build a home for the Vinsons on Kentucky Avenue, and 4th St., also one for Clarence Dawley, and will also build his own home on this same street. This assures the people who live in that part of the city, a restricted section. These houses are to be made of stucco tile in the latest Spanish design.

WHITE WAY TO BE EXTENDED

Leon D. Lamb who has been promoting the white way that has made such a wonderful improvement to the business district, is financing an extension of the white way from Massachusetts Avenue, to Florida Avenue, on Eleventh Street; from Tenth to Twelfth on Pennsylvania Avenue, and between the same streets on Florida Avenue.

Since this is one of the best ways to talk to our tourist friends as they enter our city, it is hoped that Mr. Lamb will succeed in getting the further co-operation of the property owners the entire city. This, of course, will be a big undertaking but nothing of greater value to the city could be accomplished.

PURCHASE ENTIRE TOWNSITE

Reports that Frank A. Vanderlip, President of the National City Bank, of New York, and associates, have purchased the entire townsite of Lake Stearns in Highlands County and extensive acreage surrounding it for a consideration of approximately $3,500,000, confirm confidential information received by the Florida Development Board sometime ago that the New York financier soon would invest heavily in Florida. Vanderlip and associates heretofore have confined their land operations to Southern California.

NEW YORK REALTY FIRM OPENS BRANCH OFFICE IN ST. CLOUD THIS WEEK

During the past week, two real estate men have been touring the State of Florida in an effort to secure what they deemed the best location, with a future. After some days of investigation, under the wing of John F. Bailey decided they had found what they were looking for, satisfied with St. Cloud and its surrounding fertile land they began to make purchases. The first of which was the Rembrandt Hotel, on the corner of New York Avenue and Eleventh Street, which is considered one of the best located business properties in the city.

This new firm consists of Chas. F. Howe and Abraham Berghash, of Rochester, N. Y., who have been in the real estate business for the past fifteen years and are men with money and a vision and when they are ready to announce their future plans in this section. All will be pleased to note that they are developers and builders.

This new firm has opened an office in the same room with John F. Bailey just north of the Peoples Bank, on New York Avenue, and this office is in charge of Geo. B. Tucker, of Rochester, N. Y.

Messrs. Howe and Berghash, also, have representatives in Miami, Tampa and Fort Lauderdale from which prospects will be brought to St. Cloud to invest in St. Cloud property. After completing arrangements here and getting Mr. Tucker established these gentlemen left for a brief stay in Rochester, and upon their return will begin a building campaign. They are both members of the National and State Realtors Association, which speaks volumes in Florida at this time.

Mr. Tucker has taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Philpott on Illinois Avenue, and Eighth Street, and expects as soon as he can get a home built to bring his family to St. Cloud.

REALTY BOARD HEARS PROMINENT SPEAKERS AT LUNCHEON HELD LAST FRIDAY NOON

In order to take care of the rapidly increasing interest and to give privacy to the Realtors Board, Mrs. Britt arranged a long table in the parlors of the St. Cloud Hotel. After the reading of the minutes Secretary Landis introduced Dr. J. B. Sparling, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and R. Frank Patton introduced Col. Wood, of Hartford, Conn. The chair called for remarks from both. Col. Wood said new member to be careful or he might be in predicament a mortgage keeper was as customary unidentified left in mortgage make responsible, on keeper to remain, on duty until proper identification. This mortgage keeper had kept the subject for long period of time when lady appeared and identified as her father, and as she started to leave an accidental jar of table caused head to fall and mouth of subject fell open, and his false teeth fell out and the lady said oh, no this is not my father he did not have artificial teeth. After she had gone the keeper shook his fist at subject and said you did — if you had kept your mouth shut you would have had a decent burial. Col. Wood made some well placed remarks and expressed appreciation of his stay so far in St. Cloud. Dr. Sparling said he was gratified at treatment received since he had been here and fair dealing received from members of the Realty Board; said the Col's story reminded him of a fellow that took some fruit to town to sell and his son who accompanied him was not very bright and when the father had to leave told the boy to keep his mouth shut and no one will know he was a fool. As people came along asked the boy price of fruit he did not answer finally one man said let the fool alone. When his father returned he told him he kept his mouth shut and yet they knew he was a fool. The doctor said with the present rapid growth of St. Cloud if she so chosen could soon incorporate Kissimmee Orlando and Melbourne.

The following committee to confer with Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce and Realtors Board, etc., on a county wide bond issue were appointed as follows: Wm. Landis, J. Vinson, R. W. Porter, L. M. Parker, and John F. Bailey.

Col. Wood said since he had become associated with the Sunset Beach subdivision of St. Cloud, had sent out letters and had just received a telegram from one of his men saying he will arrive at an early date and will build fifty houses ranging in value from $3,500 to $5,000.

C. C. Roffe, Secretary of Chamber of Commerce, reported that a group of three men have just bought thirty lots of the Dawley Bros, and will begin a once building a house on each one of the lots.

President Steen then introduced Special Field Secretary Grassfield of the State Realtors Association who is also editor of the Real Estate Journal and who had attended meetings of twenty different boards and while listening at the pep put in the meeting here had got a real kick. One week ago was his first visit east of Kissimmee but upon his investigation found to his amusement what was going on in St. Cloud and with the proper constructive work in the future. That the future development of Florida depend largely on the Realtors Board from Pensacola to Key West. Education is what is needed in all these especially is it of vast importance in real estate business said every man or woman in the real estate business should understand perfectly how legal papers are made or they might be like the fellow that was asked if he knew what a conveyance was said "its the thing you take prospect around in to show property".

That the building and making profitable seventeen million acres of land in Florida yet untouched in the next two decades is not a breakfast spell job, but if in the past twenty years the three million now under cultivation with practically no facilities, with all the modern facilities now available and by mailed and harmonious effort the next decade will make such a transformation that is now almost beyond comprehension. When the question of the soil producing and it becomes a known fact that already

The following committee to confer with Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce and Realtors Board, etc., on a county wide bond issue were appointed as follows: Wm. Landis, J. Vinson, R. W. Porter, L. M. Parker, and John F. Bailey.

Sunset Beach Lots Today Occur at Big Barbecue

The opening of St. Cloud's newest subdivision—Sunset Beach—east of the city on East Lake Tohopekaliga, is taking place, with an old-time barbecue being served at the noon hour to the great throng of visitors who have gathered to inspect this portion of the holdings of Dr. Gordon F. Henry and R. Frank Patton, which has been opened for sale.

An invitation has been extended to all the citizens of the county to be present for the feast of good things which have been provided for the barbecue luncheon, and all indications are that this will be a gala day for all concerned, and that Sunset Beach development will aid greatly in helping St. Cloud to become one of the greatest inland cities in the state.

WORK IS PROGRESSING ON PORALS AT LAGO VISTA

Seen the beautiful entry portals located the broad expanse of San Remo Boulevard, and Poinciana road, Lago Vista will beckon their hospitable invitation to all.

Construction on these imposing, classical, Spanish, structures is progressing fast. On each side of one hundred and twenty foot San Remo Boulevard will stand an artistically beautiful monument twenty foot square and twenty five feet high, massive and impressive, in the center just between these imposing portals will be a beautiful fountain.

This fountain will be gigantic in size, charming in its splendor with its enormous play of water by day and night, and its clusters of beautiful lights, which will illuminate both of these wide and modern Avenues.

Other work is now going forward in Lago Vista, sidewalks being laid, curbing and grading being speeded up, all of which will change the vast cattle range of other days into a beautiful and modern City of Today.

On Friday Messrs Ryan and Roberts, architects, of Orlando, were in St. Cloud with preliminary plans for the new addition and remodeling of the Conn buildings on Tenth St., and Pennsylvania Avenue, recently purchased by Palm Beach men. The room now occupied by the Chamber of Commerce is to be renovated and in the remodeling plans the present buildings are to allow ten feet to the width of Tenth Street. KNOCKERS OF FLORIDA ARE AIDING STATE

QUINCY, Fla.—George T. Sharp, of New York, has arrived in Quincy to take over active charge of the gigantic colonization project of his company in Gadsden county, Florida. Mr. Sharp represents New York and Washington capitalists who have purchased large acreage in the county and will immediately subdivide the holdings.

Mr. Sharp said that Florida was the first and last topic of conversation everyone in New York and Washington. Florida was being discussed by people in the clubs at the hotels, and on the streets. He was very positive in his statement that the efforts being made by certain chambers of commerce and banking interests in northern cities to keep persons at home only served to increase their interests in this state, and that many who otherwise would not have looked toward Florida are having curiosity aroused to the extent that they are coming in ever-increasing numbers that they may gain first hand information.

Memory Day

The Michigan legislature, through the efforts of the Orange and Parnassus clubs, passed an act in 1906, giving its sanction to the establishment of September 30, as "Memory Day," set apart for the general improvement of rural cemeteries and the graves therein. The city and large town cemeteries are usually kept most attractively, but not so with the country, hence this action in behalf of the country-side burial places. All the states could well adopt the plan.

Citrus

A valuable oil is made from the rinds. The law of Florida makes it unlawful to sell, ship or assist in selling or shipping immature citrus fruits.

THE WOMANS IMPROVEMENT CLUB

The Womens Improvement Club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday October 14th in the Library with a large and enthusiastic attendance. The library filled in its utmost capacity and it proved conclusively that more chairs were needed and a committee was appointed to look after the matter. The president called the meeting to order. Club song was sung America the Beautiful Invocation. The President made a graceful little address of welcome, after which the regular routine business was taken up. Secretary and Treasurer report was read, and accepted reports of committees. Ten new names were proposed for membership which will be voted on at next meeting. a paper "The Bible from a Normal and Spiritual viewpoint which was beautifully prepared and read with pleasing expression. Mrs. Hendrix gave a talk on the Bible from a literary viewpoint, comparing the literature of the Bible with ancient and modern classics and the oratory equal to the orations of Cicero. The talk showed great thought and study. Mrs. Landies gave a very interesting talk on the beauties of the Bible both from a spiritual and literary standpoint. The program representing women of the Bible was a very attractive feature, the audience to guess who the pictures represented. "True Womanhood" from Ruth; Mrs. Ewing Smith as "Naomi"; Katie Clarkson as "Ruth" and Mrs. Gussford as "Orpha"; The home of Mary and Martha; Mrs. Seymour as "Mary" and Mrs. Hollingsworth as "Martha"; Poetry "Marion" Moore's sister, Mrs. Mayo George; "Faith", A Little Captive Maid, Ruby Ventman; Social Worker "Dorcas"; Mrs. Conn, "Judge" and "Polotus"; Mrs. Baxter. The football game at Sanford Saturday was well attended by the town people as well as the student body. Trucks were secured for transportation by the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, and Misses Lee, Fischer and Clark were appointed as chaperones. When members of the student body exhibit such interest and pep as was shown Saturday, the team can not help but do their best.

It is hoped that the people and students will show much more interest and enthusiasm next Saturday when our boys play Leesburg at the Athletic Field.

Come on, St. Cloud!
Let's get this across!
Huh! Huh!

FOOTBALL GAME

Last Saturday's game at Sanford, marked St. Cloud's first football experience of this season as well as the first in the history of the school. The game was hard fought with both teams breaking up passes, holding back the opposing line, and blocking plays. The game ended with St. Cloud on the small end of a score of 18 to 6. With this valuable experience the boys feel better fitted for the games to come. St. Cloud's line up as follows:

Substitutions: Wheeler for Johnson; Walters for Hill and Philpott for Walters.

Don't forget the football game Saturday when the high school plays Leesburg. The game will be staged on the local football field at four o'clock. The two teams are pretty evenly matched and the game promises to furnish thrills for the spectators from the start till the last whistle blows. Tickets are on sale at the local drug stores and by all school students. Prices 25 and 50 cents.

OWING TO NUMBER OF ACCIDENTS TRAFFIC LAWS TO BE ENFORCED TO LETTER

During the past week there have been several minor accidents and now that with every day the traffic is getting more congested it will be necessary to avoid any serious accidents for every one to observe the traffic regulations.

Chief Egley is hopeful that cooperation will be given that it may not be necessary to make arrests. By keeping to the right of the line on corners and remembering that the second right is 25 miles per hour in business section 25 to city limits.

ST. CLOUD PEOPLE WITNESS
CAPSIZING AND DROWNING

Mrs. Grace Calkins, son Jack and wife while fishing in the ocean seventeen miles south of Melbourne at three o'clock Sunday afternoon seen a pleasure boat come out of the inlet and go out beyond the breakers and as it turned to come back like a flash was capsized and then came the terrible struggle for life. Jack Calkins who was on the rocks about one block away ran out on the rocks on the jetty and with his foot braced in the rocks began rescuing the drowning and the dead and finally others who were fishing on the banks but who seemed dazed by the suddenness of the terrible tragedy came to his assistance. There were times when the dashing of the waves on the rocks throwing the water over Jack until it seemed he would have to abandon further effort to rescue. Those who were not drowned were killed by being dashed against the rocks. When a summary was taken it was found out of the twenty three that was on board were ten living, ten bodies rescued and three not found. When medical aid was finally gotten to the scene which was fully two and one half hours after the terrible catastrophe. The party of sightseers were from Wichita, Kans, the guest of a real estate man of Palm Bay. There were trucks brought through the heavy sand roads and brought the bodies back to Melbourne.

BACK OF A GOOD NAME

Rarely in manufacturing history has a name entrenched itself so firmly in the confidence of the entire world as the name Dodge Brothers.

Everywhere and to everyone this name means but one thing: a product built honestly of the best available materials and sold at a just price.

Behind this product, this price and this enviable reputation lie certain impressive and fundamental facts.

So important is a knowledge of these facts to the motor car buyer that Dodge Brothers, Inc., have determined to publish them, from time to time, until every newspaper reader in America may be presumed to have read them:

Dodge Brothers, during the past eleven years, have built and sold more than one million four hundred thousand motor cars—and more than 90% of these cars are still in service. This record requires no comment. It stands impressively alone in motor car history.

It has never been Dodge Brothers policy to build yearly models. When an improvement, that is really an improvement, is discovered, it is made at once. Their slogan, "Constantly Improved But No Yearly Models" is familiar the world over.

Dodge Brothers build one chassis and only one. This policy materially lowers manufacturing cost. It also enables Dodge Brothers engineers to concentrate their entire time and thought on the betterment of this one type.

Dodge Brothers have never had an "off year" or an "off car." This is because they have never used the public as a testing ground for "new models" or lowered the quality of their product in the slightest degree. Every change has been an improvement on the original design.

Dodge Brothers pioneered in building the first all-steel open car and the first all-steel closed car. These epochal developments have saved Dodge Brothers owners many millions of dollars by materially prolonging motor car life and by effecting marked economies in manufacture. This construction has also reduced incalculably the danger from accident and fire.

Dodge Brothers sell directly through their dealers to the purchaser. There are no sectional distributing agencies to increase the cost of distribution and the cost of the car.

Dodge Brothers have never given so-called "free service." The car is sold at a fair and honest price. Nothing is added to this original purchase price to pay for service that the owner may never need.

Dodge Brothers Dealers were pioneers in unanimously adopting the flat rate service system. By this system, the owner knows in advance what any service job will cost. There are no unpleasant surprises in his bills.

The sturdiness and long life of Dodge Brothers Motor Car is reflected in its resale value. Comparatively few Dodge Brothers Motor Cars are advertised in the resale columns of the newspapers. The values they bring testify unanswerably to their goodness—and the public's belief in their goodness.

The time has passed when transient novelties can lead a thoughtful buyer to overlook the great essentials of motor car worth. A few of these essentials, outlined above, go far to explain why Dodge Brothers name is accepted, the world over, as the hall mark of dollar-for-dollar value.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

To Editor of the Tribune.

Many people in their life time may never visit parts of the world where one may go, called by recreation or called for a change of climate or for visit friends or relatives, so it is often interesting to learn and know what impresses one in these diversions. For instance how few from these parts would know the growth and changes that have taken place in the city of Montreal unless they had occasion to go there and had their attention drawn to it. Fifty years ago lived in Montreal for a year or so but visit there lately there were very few marks left of it as I knew it in that distant time. The mountain, if you can call it a mountain is still there covered with trees and it has paved roads by which you can ride to the top. It has a cross two hundred feet high which a religious order lightens up every night with electricity and which light you can see for many miles away. The Roman Catholic people believe in making the light of the cross to shine outwardly in the world and perhaps its light may impress one inwardly as we may learn through the eye as well as hearing the light of the cross the emblem of the teaching of Christianity. The Church of Rome has a vast amount of property in Montreal and it is wonderful how its people bear up under the expense it must entail. One thing Church property is not taxed and the church of Rome has churches, nunneries, hospitals and schools.

The French portion of the population seem very reconciled to be obedient to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church. In conversation with a Frenchman who could converse in English he asked me if I believed in the intercession of the Virgin Mary. I said we had no evidence in Scripture that she could do so. His answer was that he was ignorant in the matter. The French Romanist seem to put such explicit trust in the teachings of the priests. The man seemed to be well educated but did not bother himself about the verities of the Christian religion and it is just the same with good many Protestants. They remain the same whether right or wrong. I suppose we will have to go on the theory that those in error will be forgiven. Ignorance is bliss perhaps.

McGill Institution is quite noted in this country in its medical arts and scientific attainments and has very fine buildings. Montreal is largely built up of granite material, dwellings as well as public buildings. It is an up to date city with electric street cars, omnibuses, pleasure boats to view the city and the rush of vehicles before business opens and after you would think the city was in a turmoil of madness such being a crowd and confusion of the main business streets. It claims a population of nine hundred thousand and that it will soon be in the million numbers make the great metropolitan city of the north. I am informed that it was very much visited by people from the United States for the purpose it is claimed to quench their thirst for strong drink which is too bad. Just this last summer.

The Better Buick is a Man-sized Motor Car

People appreciate a smart-driving, easily-handled, but full-sized, man-sized car. The Better Buick, for instance.

Each Buick model seats its capacity of full-grown people—in relaxed ease—without cramped legs or necks. Tall people, especially, enjoy its extra head-room and leg-room.

American men and women are above the average stature. And a smaller car than Buick is apt to be tight-fitting, low-ceilinged, crowded!

Drop in and try the ample, arm-chair comfort of a car that is right in size. Bring some of your six-footer friends. You will find another big reason why Buick is so widely considered a better motor car—another reason why there are a million and more enthusiastic Buick owners.

Or telephone, and we will send a Better Buick to your home or office for you to try.

LONE SURVIVING CAPTOR OF
'JEFF' DAVIS VISITOR HERE

CAPT. J. F. BULLARD, ST. CLOUD, FLORIDA, GUEST OF CAPTAIN GEORGE CLARK, GULL LAKE, REVIEWS HISTORICAL EVENT.

(The Kalamazoo Gazette)

Two Civil war heroes—one nationally known as the only surviving captor of Jefferson Davis, and the other one enjoying the distinction of having been one of the three soldiers of his regiment to capture a Rebel flag—are holding a reunion at Yorkville, Gull lake.

These heroes are Captain James F. Bullard of St. Cloud, Florida, and Captain George W. Clark, of Kalamazoo and Yorkville. On the spacious lawn of the Clark home, overlooking beautiful Gull lake, Captains Bullard and Clark are living again in their memories the stirring years of 1861 to 1865, when they participated so conspicuously in the making of American history.

Captain Bullard and Captain Clark were comrades in the same regiment—the Fourth Michigan Cavalry—which was reconstituted at Detroit but which included in its roster men from Southwestern Michigan. Although the two soldiers were assigned to different companies, they were together during most of the war—both of them serving during the entire life of their regiment.

Bullard Lone Survivor

Captain Bullard is the only surviving captor of Jefferson Davis, Confederate president. One other man, George Munger of Schoolcraft, was with Captain Bullard at the time of the capture but Munger died several years ago.

When asked to give a detailed account of the capture of Jefferson Davis May 10, 1865, Captain Bullard stated he would consent to do so with the view to giving the public an accurate record of the historic event. He explained that any number of stories based on hearsay, wild rumors and resulting from flights of imagination, have served to confuse public opinion relative to the capture of the Rebel president. He made it clear, before launching into the account, that he was giving nothing but facts in the case as witnessed with his own eyes and as they transpired at the hands of himself and George Munger.

And so here is Captain Bullard's story of the capture, beginning with the night of the pursuit of Jefferson Davis.

"We left Macon, Ga., at night and marched to near Hawkinsville, where we went into camp till daylight."

CRAWFORD
ELECTRIC SHOP

narrated the captain. "We then proceeded to Abbeville where our outfit met the First Wisconsin cavalry under Colonel Pritchard. At Abbeville, the roads fork, one going to the Oklawaha river and the other one leading to Irwinesville. The colonels of the two regiments met and decided between them which road the two outfits would take. The two outfits then set out in search of the party with which Jefferson Davis was supposed to be making a frantic effort to escape over the Mississippi into Texas.

In Pursuit of Davis

"After marching a few miles we came upon a man who had suffered a breakdown with his wagon. He informed us that a party which he said might be that of Jeff Davis had been seen in the vicinity of Irwinesville, we learned further that by taking a round-about course of many miles we could get in ahead of this party. According to 128 of the best riders in the outfit were selected to make this dash toward what was supposed to be the Davis party.

"After a weary ride we drew up on the other side of Irwinesville and found what was supposed to be the party. We surrounded it while it was unprepared and then rested. It was at this point that we ran into a skirmish with the First Wisconsin outfit, which also had encamped in the vicinity. Two men were killed and one wounded as a result of the fight between our two forces, before we learned of the mistake.

"While George Munger and myself were secluded in a thicket, justing the saddles to our horses, Comrade Munger caught glimpse of a party of three—all supposed to be ladies, walking rapidly along a narrow path. 'There go some women who shouldn't be permitted to leave camp,' said Comrade Munger. I ordered Munger to go ahead and stop them while I finished bucking my saddle. I then caught up with him. As we approached the party of three we made a startling discovery which set our hearts beating rapidly. The skirts of the woman in the center had caught on some underbrush and in pulling it loose a man's military boots were disclosed.

"We dashed up and ordered the trio to halt.

"Woman is Davis"

"I guess your the man we are looking for," said Comrade Munger, as we stepped up to the central figure. We discovered the woman to be Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

"With the frantic cry, 'Don't shoot him,' one of the women in the party, whom we learned was Jefferson Davis wife, threw her arms about his neck. The other woman, a sister of Mrs. Davis, drew close to her brother-in-law as if to protect him.

"Let them shoot me—I might as well be shot here as anywhere," replied Davis.

"We never intended to shoot President Davis. We divested him of his skirt and woman's shawl which he wore over his head. Now right at this point I want to state emphatically that Jeff Davis was disguised in woman's attire, which fact is disputed by many people, especially those of the South. Under the protection of the attire and in company with his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Maggie Howell, Davis was attempting to make his escape. The woman's clothing which was worn by Davis is an important part of the Civil war records at Washington.

"After we had captured Jeff Davis our outfit took him to Macon, Atlanta, Augusta, Savannah and Hilton-head, enroute to Fortress Monroe. At Fortress Monroe we turned him over to General Miles.

Ordered to Washington

"Following the delivery of Davis to General Miles, Comrade Munger and myself were ordered to Washington where we were required to give a detailed account of the capture of the Rebel president to Secretary Stanton.

"We learned, after we had come upon the Davis party, that a reward of $100,000 had been ordered by the government for the capture of the Rebel president. After three or four years this reward was distributed among the officers and men of the outfit while he commended and participated in the capture of Davis. I received as my share about $340.

Captain George Clark had a no less thrilling and a much more dangerous experience in the capture of the Rebel flag than had Captain Bullard and Comrade Munger in the capture of the Rebel president. It was a deed which exacted from the entire regiment praises for Captain Clark and one which placed him foremost in the admiration of the officers and men of his outfit.

"It was at the battle of Middleton, Tenn., that I captured that flag," reminisced Captain Clark, rising the while from his seat to lend emphasis to his remarks by extending his arm or his cane. "We had been in battle for some time and the conflict was raging hot. We had advanced rather deeply into the battle lines of the Rebels and were gaining ground rapidly. It looked like a certain victory for us.

Capture Rebel Flag

"During the battle I had gradually worked forward and finally attained ground in the immediate vicinity of the Rebel flag bearer. I watched my opportunity and then made a dash for the flag. There ensued a fierce hand-to-hand struggle and it was only after several minutes of such fighting that I succeeded in wresting the banner from the Rebels."

Captain Bullard suggested Captain Clark's story of this event by adding that Captain Clark had to battle four Rebels at once before he succeeded in getting the flag. The banner was that of the First Alabama Rebel Cavalry, and it is now on display at the state capital in Lansing. It was during the battle of Middleton, that Captain Bullard was wounded.

The two Civil war veterans have warm seats in their hearts for their old outfit—the Fourth Michigan Cavalry. They declare that this regiment saw the most service of any Michigan unit and stated they were under fire 400 different times and the outfit participated in 94 engagements, capturing a total of three battle flags. Some of the battles in which the Fourth Michigan played important parts were Prairieville, Murfreesboro, Stone River, Tebbenna, Chickamauga, the Atlanta campaign, and others. The two captains stated they were under fire at least once every day the outfit was engaged in scouting or in battle.

Mr. Bullard who is a native of Van Buren County, but who has resided in St. Cloud, Florida for the last 15 years, is visiting relatives and old acquaintances here for a few weeks.

OCTOBER WILL FIND MANY STARS IN NEW
HEAVENLY POSITIONS

WASHINGTON—Just as with a lot of folks, October is moving time with the stars. Above the eastern horizon soon will appear the brilliant stars of early winter. The full trick is in order.

On October 7, Jupiter will be in quadrature with the sun, that is, 90 degrees east of the sun and on the meridian due south at sunset. Mars has left the evening sky and is on the far side of its orbit from the earth, 259,000,000 miles away. The big dipper will be far over the north-west.

The Milky way may be traced on clear, dark evenings in October diagonally across the heavens from the northeast to the western horizon. Far over in the southeast will appear the brilliant constellation in the constellation Pisces Australis, the Southern Fish, which is visible in American latitudes only for a brief period in the fall and early winter. Pegasus is one of the 20 brightest stars in the heavens.

October star gazers, says a bul-sociation, will find that the constellation of the American Nature Association of Capricornus, the sea goat, and Aquarius, the water bearer, two constellations of the zodiac that contain no stars brighter than the third magnitude, have taken the places of the brilliant zodiacal groups of Scorpio and Sagittarius that were conspicuous in the southern sky during the summer. Venus, which has been visible in the western sky after sunset since late in June, will be seen as the evening star in the southwest for about two hours after sunset.

Saturn will be seen for a short time after sunset a little to the north-west of Venus, but before October has passed it will be too close to the sun to be seen in the twilight. Jupiter still is directly north of the little inverted milk dipper, and it will be next to Venus the most brilliant object in view in the southwestern heavens in the early evening.

PUT ON NEW FRONT

A force of men under the direction of Contractor Pete Morgan, have completed the work on the new fronts of the Clarence Bailey Realty Co., Mallory Grocery, Bennett Grocery and the Western Union building. This is a splendid piece of work and adds much to the appearance of New York Avenue.

WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION

The W. C. T. U. is still holding regular meetings but with short programs as there is do much business to be done before the state convention to be in St. Cloud the first week in November.

September 18th a meeting was held in the Temple with 28 members present.

After the Scripture lesson and prayer a short address was made by Prof. Zetrouner, his subject being along the line of cigarette smoking by the young also touching on Bible reading in the schools, which he strongly advocated. At the close of his address he asked the union if it possible to give to the schools of St. Cloud twenty copies of Head's Bibles. This request was considered and it was voted to make an effort to secure the Bibles needed.

The next regular meeting was held Friday the 1st day of October with thirty members and honorary members present. Meeting opened with singing. Devotional were conducted by Mrs. Jennie Ward. There was no program given the time being taken for arrangements and appointing of committee to look after places where the delegates to the convention could be entertained. All committees to report at the Temple Saturday October 10th at three o'clock.

The subject of securing a show entitled The Ten Commandments to be given at the G. A. R. Hall Monday night October 12th the proceeds to be used to help pay present needs of the union, was discussed, and it was decided to advertise this show at once and proceed to sell the tickets for the same as the show came highly recommended as especially entertaining and helpful for the young as well as older people.

Walter Erickson, of Naperville, Ill., driving a Fordson and Jamesville Plow, won first honors and a silver cup in the Farmers Class with a score of 92 1/2 points.

First prize was captured in the only other event, the Boys Class by Forrest George, 15 years old, scoring 83 1/2 points with a Fordson Tractor and Oliver plow.

The victory of the Fordson was well received by the 600 or 700 enthusiastic farmers who cheered the contestants, show by far the great majority of them were owners of that type of tractor.

Fordson success was not a surprise to the practical farmers who witnessed this plowing contest. Factors which gave the Fordson first honors in every class were, its flexibility, its short turning radius and ease of steering, one wheel running in a furrow. This makes for better uniformity and straightness of furrows, both of which were points considered in computing the scores.

The farmers at the Wheatland Contest were over-joyed because one of their vocations in winning scored slightly better than the victor in the manufacturers event with his brand new equipment. Considerable comment was afforded by the difficulty in finding horses to pull the only two "walking plows" which also took a part in the plowing exhibition.

W. G. KINGANNEX TO W. C. T. U. TEMPLE

James Sage with a force began laying the foundation Thursday morning on the addition to the W. C. T. U. Temple on 11th Street. Since the Temple was erected the ladies were fortunate in securing more ground and with the pressing demand for more room to provide a rest room in the down town section the ladies are to be congratulated on going ahead with this improvement. Since the State convention is to be held in St. Cloud the 2, 3, 4, and 5th of November, the ladies are very desirous that this work can all be completed by that time.

FLORIDA HUNTERS WILL FIND GAME PLENTIFUL

TALLAHASSEE—Hunters in Florida during the coming season, opening November 20, are going to find game of all kinds more plentiful than in several years, is the text of reports reaching J. R. Royall, state game commissioner, from deputies over the state.

Commissioner Royall added that his personal observations confirmed the reports. He reiterated his urging to hunters that the game limit be observed, so that Florida's wild birds and animals will not perceptibly diminish.

A law intended to make hunting regulations uniform over the state and eliminating the conflict of local laws with state game laws will be advocated by him at the coming special legislature session, Mr. Royall said.

BANQUET HONORING KARL BARTH OCT. 6

Johnson Bible College, Kimberlin Heights, Tenn. The administration, members of the faculty, and students of Johnson Bible College, Kimberlin Heights, Tenn., enjoyed a very pleasant evening on the night of October 6th as the result of a banquet provided by Mrs. Charles Barth, of St. Cloud, Fla. While this was not the first banquet provided for the school by Mrs. Barth, it will doubtless linger in her memory as one of the most pleasing events of her life as it was given in honor of her son, Karl, who passed his twenty-first birthday on that date. The evening was a credit to the occasion as the banquet was in some respects possibly the most elaborate in the history of the institution.

Prof. W. H. Sperry, of the college faculty, who presided, in his introductory remarks expressed great appreciation of the evening and all similar evenings and talked somewhat at length of their place in the history of institutions of learning. Mrs. Ashley S. Johnson, the president of the College, spoke particularly of the impression that she had of the above mentioned mother from personal acquaintance. She lamented very much the fact that so many mothers lack the spirit and the zeal that this good woman has in so enthusiastically encouraging her son to aspire to position where he may serve humanity and God alike.

Tonight of excellent taste were given by Prof. T. B. Ford, of the chair of Greek and Philosophy, and by Donald R. Badders, president of the Senior class. Prof. Ford in speaking upon the fitting subject, "My Son," vividly brought to his hearers the place of the son in the home—that even where the calls of duty and responsibility apparently "break up the home," there are bonds of love can never be broken. He pictured the prodigal son, calling particular attention to the fact when the wandering boy was yet far from home his aged father was anxiously gazing towards that far country where his son had gone ever hoping to see his familiar outline on the horizon in the distance. Mr. Badders equally charmed his hearers on the theme, "The Ministry." He declared that the call to the ministry is a result of the great need in that field of service and very enthusiastically did he speak of the heritage and the dignity of the man of God.

While the guest of honor visibly showed emotion to great for expression in human speech, he expressed his appreciation of all having a part in making the evening possible and closing with the immortal words of Lincoln, "All that I am and hope to be, I owe to my angel mother."

Miss Alma Rose Brown the writer of the above and Miss Campbell who superintended the banquet and made the music are both students of our College.

MRS. ASHLEY S. JOHNSON, Pres.

The speaker expresses the feeling of pride and appreciation of the St. Cloud friends and admirers of Karl Barth, and surely with such influence as the kind of profession and he has chosen gives him and with one of the best mothers which can only be strength to him we extend congratulation on his attaining his majority.

STATES REALTY BOARD EXTENDS TIME FOR APPLICATIONS

The State Realty Board has extended the time fifteen days, making October 15 the date for applying the penalties of the new law for realty transactions. However all applications for license must be in by October 1st.

President Rose has issued warnings that the provisions of the law will be strictly enforced. This is the reassurance and will protect the honest dealer, the legitimate developer and the friends of Florida. The law is strict in its terms, and it is well that it is, for that insures more protection to the buyers of Florida land and for the broker as well.

The real estate law is Florida's answer to the kickers who are trying to paint perils to prospective buyers in faraway states. Propaganda is still being used against this state. It is taking on more vicious forms. Of course it arises through jealousy. Nevertheless it will scare some who are not informed and advised on the situation. Florida is ready to tell the world that she guarantees the quality of her land, the integrity of her developers, the legality of her titles and the security of transactions. There is no need of any one being defrauded if they are dealing with members of realty boards.

The Crime Wave
Dr. Mayo, the famous American surgeon, was asked in England about the "crime wave" in the United States. "Yes," he said, "the dark-skinned people are killing themselves off, and the more the better. The crime wave is not American, but racial and trans-Atlantic. Nothing has happened to the American people. The criminal classes are recruited from aliens who brought their criminal proclivities with them. America has been a dumping ground for certain countries sending their criminals and defectives to our country." A fact not generally considered is that every city has its reporters in crime. One man in New York had repeated over fifty times.
